Labor Day

I begin today by thanking you for your concern and prayer for my Aunt Helen and Uncle Paul. Paul quietly moved into the arms of Jesus on August 11 after a normal morning of breakfast, physical therapy, rest and lunch. Helen in the confusion of Alzheimer's finds it impossible to comprehend her daily life, now especially without her beloved and caring husband, Paul. I ask that you pray for the desire of her heart, mind and soul.

This week we celebrate Labor Day! What does it mean to us now: a holiday, the first vacation day of the new school year, same old same old? What are our labors of caring, desire and love? The smallest act we do to the greatest achievement are so important, and we should be most grateful. No matter what we do, if we put ourselves—body, mind and spirit into it— we take Jesus with us. Don't let anything you do be same old, same old plan something to take with you to bring new life and spirit. What does it mean when we say or hear "what can I do, can I help you"? Read in the scriptures, the public life and ministry of Jesus—he called upon others. As we celebrate what our gifts and abilities are, let us recall the challenges we have to labor with Jesus in the everyday life, using body, mind and spirit to make a difference to someone(s) else.

THE DIFFERENCE

It is labour indeed that puts the difference on everything.

Dear Parishioners,

Wow! What a wonderful day we experienced last Sunday. Suffice it to say all did such a great job! Not to name anyone, but thanks for planning, working, and coming to the picnic.

With school now started we wish for a successful school year ahead. Teachers, students, parents, please support our administration as they only want what is best for our kids! We wish all the best in all sports and activities. All the best to our football team, the cheerleaders, and band. Let's get and keep our Lion Pride going!

If you get a chance to see our newly made and know dedicated grotto at night don't miss it! Holy Family— bless New Brighton and all of Beaver Valley!

*God Bless,
Fr. Tom*
